December 2018

Recent outcomes of interest to private sector:

FATF Mutual Evaluations

The United Kingdom’s AML/CFT Measures

• The FATF Evaluation of the United Kingdom was published on 7 December 2018. The report found that the United Kingdom has a well-developed and robust regime to effectively combat Money Laundering (ML) and Terrorist Financing (TF). However, it needs to strengthen its supervision, and increase the resources of its financial intelligence unit. See Executive Summary and Full Report for more details.

Israel’s AML/CFT Measures

• The Joint FATF/MONEYVAL Evaluation of Israel was published on 10 December 2018. The report found that Israel is achieving good results in identifying and responding to its ML and TF risks, but needs more focus on supervision and preventive measures. Israel becomes a full member of the FATF with immediate effect, following the publication of its mutual evaluation report. See Executive Summary and Full Report for more details.

Follow-up Reports

Austria’s progress in strengthening measures to tackle ML and TF

• As a result of Austria’s progress in strengthening their measures to fight ML and TF since their 2016 mutual evaluation report and their first follow-up progress report in December 2017, the FATF has re-rated the country on Recommendations 24 and 25. See full follow-up report for details.

Denmark’s progress in strengthening measures to tackle ML and TF

• As a result of Denmark’s progress in strengthening its framework to tackle ML and TF since their 2017 mutual evaluation, the FATF has re-rated the country on 10 of the 40 Recommendations. See full follow-up report for more details.
The FATF published its report to the G20 Leaders' Summit Buenos Aires, Argentina on 30 November - 1 December 2018. G20 support for the work of the FATF is echoed in the G20 Leaders' Declaration. G20 members committed to 'regulate crypto-assets for anti-money laundering and countering the financing of terrorism in line with FATF standards' and to 'step up our efforts in fighting terrorist and proliferation financing, and money laundering'.

Mr. Marshall Billingslea, President of the FATF, wrote an article on "Reinforcing the financial system", highlighting that "The G20 plays a crucial role in setting global standards, recognising that weak links in the global financial system threaten economies around the world ".
